

A RESOLUTION to congratulate Amy Dora McBroom for outstanding work as an intern.

WHEREAS, throughout the course of each legislative session, there have on occasion emerged certain individuals who far exceed the basic requirements set forth for them to follow; and

WHEREAS, Amy Dora McBroom has distinguished herself as one such individual through her work as a legislative intern for Representative Joe Kent, her efforts resulting in untold benefits for the member she served and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, Amy is an outstanding graduate of Cookeville High School where she graduated in the top 14% of her class and was elected Student Congress President, Tennessee Tomorrow President, and represented her school at Girls' State; and

WHEREAS, an extremely active high school student, Amy helped to manage the school's nationally recognized newspaper, The Charger, assisted in the development and organization of the Junior High Golf Team and Speech Team, was selected as a high school theater apprentice for Austin Peay State University's Center Stage '90, and was a winner at the Tennessee Theater Association Audition; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of her scholastic ability, Amy was awarded collegiate scholarships from the Tennessee VFW and Ladies Auxiliary, the Tennessee Theater Association, and the Tennessee Board of Regents; and

WHEREAS, a highly regarded student at the University of Memphis, Amy has excelled both academically and in extracurricular activities; she was cast in prominent dramatic roles in

“Secret of Rapture” and “To the Lighthouse” and was selected as a member of the Peer Mentor Program; and

WHEREAS, the daughter of proud parents Douglas and Jane McBroom, Amy has engaged in a great number of charitable and philanthropic endeavors of which even a brief list is inspiring: LeBonheur Children’s Hospital in Memphis, the Red Cross, the Skinner Center, the Memphis Food Bank, the American Association for the Blind and Visually Impaired, United Cerebral Palsy, and public television; and

WHEREAS, during the 1995 legislative session, Amy exceeded all standards with regard to the qualities that are expected of a dedicated and competent legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, eager to learn more about the intricacies and idiosyncrasies of Tennessee state government and to aid in her political science studies, Amy brought many skills to the State Capitol for the 1995 session of the Ninety-Ninth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Amy has performed her many responsibilities with extraordinary ingenuity and decorum and as members of this General Assembly, we wish to thank her for her dedication and professionalism; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we hereby honor and thank Amy McBroom for her extraordinary effort and outstanding performance as an intern.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final resolving clause omitted from such copy.
